"What will you paint?"
asked the teacher.

"A unicorn!" said Nezha.
"Mine will have rainbow hair!"

"We made this together!"
said Wukong.
"Sleep well, little bear."

They washed their brushes.
They put up their picture.

"A bunny," said Pigsy.
"Look at these long ears!"

"A unicorn for me, too!"
said Wukong.

Wukong painted a pillow
by his bear.
"Painting is hard work!"

They painted green grass.
They painted a little path.

He mixed red and blue.
He mixed in yellow.
Swish, swish, swish.

Wukong looked at his paper.
"My unicorn is a round brown blob!"

"Can we paint together?"
"Yes!" said his friends.

Nezha painted rainbow hair.
Pigsy painted pink inside the bunny's ears.

The teacher looked, too.
"What can that blob be?"

He painted two round ears.
The blob was a bear!

Two eyes. One nose.
A happy little smile.
